Get specific with your probiotics

Activated Probiotics is a range of targeted and condition-specific probiotics. Each product is formulated with clinically-trialled probiotic strains known to support a particular health concern, such as constipation, irritable bowel syndrome (IBS) and other concerns beyond the gut.

Biome Lax™ Probiotic contains a clinically-trialled combination of probiotic strains which have been shown to help ease bowel motions and improve bowel regularity.

Biome IBS™ Probiotic was scientifically formulated with specific probiotic strains found to help relieve the symptoms of medically-diagnosed IBS in clinical trials.
